Application
Union County Development Board

Applications will be kept on file in the Union County Development Board Office for at least one year from date of application. Incumbents whose terms expire and who are eligible for reappointment will be considered and may be asked to complete a new application.

If selected, you will be tasked with the responsibility of serving in an advisory capacity and with no compensation. Attendance at the South Carolina Economic Development Institute is mandatory for Union County Development Board members. From time to time, you will have access to confidential information regarding a variety of economic development projects; therefore, you will be required to sign a confidentiality agreement. As an applicant and/or Board Member your name, address and telephone number may be made available under the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act.

A resume must accompany the application in order to be considered for board appointment.
