BELOW HAS BEEN ASSEMBLED FROM SECTION 12-43-220 OF THE S.C. CODE OF LAWS OF 1976 AS AMENDED, A FULL COPY OF THE CODE MAY BE FOUND AT <http://www.scstatehouse.gov/code/title12.php>

DEFINITION OF LEGAL RESIDENCE

For property tax purposes the term "legal residence" shall mean the permanent domicile or dwelling place owned and occupied by the owner thereof. It shall be the place where he intends to remain permanently for an indefinite time even though he may be temporarily living at another location. Legal residence may be no more than five contiguous acres and must be owned totally or in part fee simple title or by life estate and occupied by the owner of interest. If property is held in trust and the income beneficiary occupies the property as a residence, then the assessment ratio allowed by this item applies, if the Trustee certifies to the Assessor that the property is occupied as a residence by the income beneficiary of the trust. Application must be filed with the Assessor's Office before the first penalty date for the payment of taxes for the year for which the owner first claims eligibility for this assessment ratio. Failure to file within the prescribed time constitutes abandonment of the owner's right for this classification for the current tax year and loss of the school tax credit.

"A member of my household" means: (A) the owner-occupant's spouse, except when that spouse has filed a complaint for separate support and maintenance with the appropriate family court, lives separate and apart in a different residence, and no longer cohabitates as husband and wife with the owner-occupant; and (B) any child under the age of eighteen years of the owner-occupant claimed or eligible to be claimed as a dependent on the owner-occupant's federal income tax return.

An applicant who has filed a complaint for separate support and maintenance and is granted the 4% special assessment must reapply and recertify annually to maintain the special assessment ratio on his independent, owner-occupied property until the applicant has been granted a divorce or the applicant has reconciled with his spouse.

For ownership interest in residential property created by deed if the interest has not already transferred by operation of law, when the individual claiming the special four percent ratio allowed by this item has an ownership interest in the residence that is less than fifty percent ownership in fee simple, then the value of the residence allowed the special four percent ratio is a percentage equal of the value equal to the individuals ownership interest in the residence.

QUALIFICATION REQUIREMENTS

For purposes of the assessment ratio allowed pursuant to this item, the applicant must actually own and occupy the residence as his legal residence and be domiciled at that address for some period during the applicable tax year, shall provide all information required in the application and other proof required by the assessor, a residence which has been qualified as a legal residence for any part of the year is entitled to the four percent assessment ratio provided in this item for the entire year, for the exemption from property taxes levied for school operations pursuant to section 12-37-251 for the entire year, and for the homestead exemption under section 12-37-250, if otherwise eligible, for the entire year.

Information for proof of residence required by the assessor may include but is not limited to: (A) copy of the owner-occupants most recently filed S.C. Individual Income Tax Return; (B) copy of a court order showing that you are separated; this may be titled, Decree of Separate Support and Maintenance or a Separation Order from a Family Court or an order from another court of competent jurisdiction in another state showing that you are separated; (C) members of the military, provide a copy of your Current Orders, LES and Military ID; (D) copy of final Divorce Decree (E) other proof required by the assessor necessary to determine eligibility for the assessment ratio allowed by this item.

FOR PURPOSES OF THIS SPECIAL ASSESSMENT "IMMEDIATE FAMILY MEMBER" MEANS PARENT, CHILD, OR SIBLING.
DO NOT SEND YOUR ORIGINAL DOCUMENTS – SEND LEGIBLE COPIES ONLY

RIGHT TO APPEAL

If the assessor determines the owner-occupant ineligible, the owner-occupant may appeal the classification as provided in Chapter 60, Title 12 of the S.C. Code of Laws. Taxpayer must notify the assessor in writing within thirty days of notice of ineligibility of intent.

CERTIFICATION STATEMENT

If a person signs the certification, obtains the four percent assessment ratio, and is thereafter found not eligible, or thereafter loses eligibility and fails to notify the assessor within six months, a penalty is imposed EQUAL TO ONE HUNDRED PERCENT OF THE TAX PAID, plus interest on that amount at the rate of one-half of one percent a month, but in no case less than thirty dollars nor more than the current year's taxes. This penalty and any interest are considered ad valorem taxes due on the property for purposes of collection and enforcement.

FILING OF THIS APPLICATION DOES NOT ALLOW DELAY IN PAYING TAXES THAT HAVE BEEN BILLED.
PENALTIES & INTEREST WILL NOT BE WAIVED IF PAYMENT IS LATE.

If your application is found ineligible you will receive notification of disapproval along with your appeal rights and appeal time period.
